

Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society Welcomes Their 25th Year of Remembrance

Join the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society and Cleveland Police Pipes and Drums as they hold a fundraiser to honor the fallen. A special 25th silver anniversary of the police memorial commemoration, taking place from May 19-23, 2010, will commence with a welcome reception and fundraiser on the evening of Thursday, May 20 at Pickwick and Frolic Restaurant & Club.

The event begins at 5 PM. Attendees will enjoy dinner at 6 PM and includes a pizza station, Italian loaf subs, Italian seasoned meatball, pasta station, Caesar salad and assorted cheeses and fruits. Evening entertainment includes comedian Mike Armstrong in the Theater performing at 8, the first 400 seated will enjoy the show (www.mikearmstrong.com), live music from New Barley Corn, a DJ, various Pipe Bands and Choirs and television screens showing the Cleveland Cavaliers basketball team and Stanley Cup match.

Money raised will help the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society continue its tradition of remembering fallen heroes.

Make sure to arrive early to enjoy all of the festivities!